The ARTFL Project

Founded in 1982 as a result of a collaboration between the French government and the University of Chicago, the ARTFL Project is a consortium-based service that provides its members with access to North America's largest collection of digitized French resources. Along with ARTFL's flagship database ARTFL-FRANTEXT, ARTFL members are also given access to a large variety of other Subscriber Databases.

In addition to our member services, of Diderot and d'Alembert, and the ARTFL, which has resulted in a hor development of a suite of open sou
