10. LinkMaker will report that the link has been made durable. Click “OK” to continue.

The screenshot shows the Blackboard LinkMaker interface for a course titled "LinkMaker Test Course Lib-600". The top navigation bar includes the American University logo and user options like "Mark Winek", "My Places", "Home", "Help", and "Logout". Below this, there are tabs for "My Institution", "Courses", and "System Admin". The main content area is titled "Assignments" and features a yellow header with a folder icon and a dropdown menu. Below the header are four buttons: "Build Content", "Create Assessment", "Add Interactive Tool", and "Assign Textbook". The main content area displays a single assignment entry with a "Link" icon, the title "Beware the Deadly Books: A Forgotten Episode in Library History", and the citation "Andrew McClary The Journal of Library History (1974-1987) , Vol. 20, No. 4 (Fall, 1985), pp. 427-433". A "Click here to view" link is also present. On the right side of the assignment entry, there is a small menu icon. A red box highlights the assignment entry.

11. LinkMaker will display the link and citation as it will appear under the "Assignments" tab in your course. Use the drop-down menu to make any changes or delete the link.
