10. LinkMaker will report that the link has been made durable. Click “OK” to continue.

The screenshot displays the Blackboard LinkMaker interface for a course titled "LinkMaker Test Course Lib-600". The top navigation bar includes the American University logo and user options like "Mark Winek", "My Places", "Home", "Help", and "Logout". Below this, there are tabs for "My Institution", "Courses", and "System Admin". The main content area is titled "Assignments" and features a yellow header with a folder icon and a dropdown menu. Below the header are four buttons: "Build Content", "Create Assessment", "Add Interactive Tool", and "Assign Textbook". A list of assignments is shown, with one entry selected: "Books, Maps, and Politics: A History of the Library of Congress, 1782-1861". The entry includes a small icon, a title, and a citation: "McCutcheon, Camille. The Journal of American Culture 27. 4 (Dec 2004): 436." A blue link "Click here to view" is present below the citation. On the left side, there is a vertical navigation menu with various course components like "Home Page", "Information", "Content", "Discussions", "Groups", "Tools", "Help", "Announcements", "DL Course test", "Contacts", "Lectures (Video)", "Working Dbases", "Non-working Dbases", "Library Services", "Discussion Board", and "External Links".

11. LinkMaker will display the link and citation as it will appear under the “Assignments” tab in your course. Use the drop-down menu to make any changes or delete the link.
